Karen Galbraith

When you choose Elegant Style, you choose a personal one to one approach, where we tailor our service to meet your specific requirements while transforming your chosen venue into an unforgettable setting.

As with every client the process begins with a meeting to allow us to ascertain exactly what you wish to get out of your event. We work together helping you choose the right fabrics, colours, accessories and finishing touches to make for a truly spectacular event.

Our philosophy is to make the day completely stress free and when your special day arrives we deliver, steam press all linen and style your venue, long before your guests arrive. When the celebrations are but a happy memory we return, clear-up, pack and collect all linen and covers. What's more, Elegant Style is an independent Scottish business under the personal direction of founder Karen Galbraith, so there's no call centres or distant franchises to deal with.

It really is all about you.

Transform a functional space into a magical place!

You've a part to play too... Our one to one approach begins right from our first chat. We'll come to you or you can come to us. We'll spend time with you, at your convenience, discussing your likes and dislikes, after all everyone has a colour they love or a fabric they hate! We offer the opportunity to view dressed chairs and settings to enable you to create the combination that best suits your expectations. As we work by appointment only you can be sure of our total commitment and attention.

Style with elegance... Make your choice from classic traditional fabrics to contemporary and modern, from subtle to bright, you decide.

A little thought can go a long way... Having visited your chosen venue we're only too happy to liaise with their staff to ensure everything goes according to plan. With a little thought and a lot of planning any venue can take on a beautiful, calm, airy, almost magical appearance. When your guests first enter, that intake of breath tells you that you've chosen well. The chairs are stunning, table linens fresh and crisp with table decorations complementing everything around them. We create an air of calm, genteel quality, providing a backdrop of the highest order, where often plain, function suite furniture takes on a new life. There is no doubt that the right attention to detail and correct colour co-ordination often 'makes' that special atmosphere. Our sashes, overlays, napkins, table runners and matching table linens help complete the effect... an effect that portrays Elegant Style.

Transform your venue... From Corporate events to intimate dinners. Co-ordinate with matching table linens. Elegance guaranteed. Superb range of colours, fabrics and styles. From subtle to dynamic or from a romantic candlelit dinner to a large corporate event.

Remember we are happy to cater for any event, no matter how large, no matter how small.
